GRAVE QUESTIONS.

It is becoming a grave question how long the Northern States shall submit to the fiendish barbarities daily practiced upon their citizens in the southern half of the acy. For a tenth part of the provocation now existing, we should be at war with the strongest power in Christen-dom. The St. Louis Democrat of the Sth inst. relates a horrible case of whipping and tarring and feathering practiced in Mississippi upon a gentleman from Juneau county, Wisconsin. We would not unduly excite the public mind, but these things are becoming intolerable.

It is becoming a grave question whether peaceable secession to-day does not mean war six months hence. That which we may submit to, however gingerly, while the Union lasts, we would not tolerate a moment at the hands of a foreign nation, whether that nation were separated from any evidence—is there a reasonable probability—that persons accused of harboring sentiments hostile to slavery will be per mitted to navigate the Mississippi River in peace after a dissolution of the Union shall have taken place? We see no such evi-

Is had been our original intention to lish verbatim one speech from the lead ounsel on each side of this case. The m associated as senior counsel with the defence from the outset of the suit, was already in an advanced state of preparation for insertion, and a portion of the same actually in type. This speech, how ever, owing to its extreme length, some twenty columns, from the multipli its facts, the minuteness of its details, the intricacy of the argument, and the precision of language employed, characteristic of Mr. Beckwith, required a revision which Mr. B. expressed himself utterly unable to by the progress of the trial. We have yielded to his desire that without such revision no seemingly authorized version should be put forth.

Elsewhere we present the very able and eloquent closing argument of John Van closing yesterday noon. The speech will be finished in our columns to-morrow.

Mr. Cunningham, of the House, who is put forward by the Committee to take all the responsibility of extreme sentiments, has openly avowed his hatred of Democracy in the camp. He considered the common soldiers as incapable of an elective choice. The opposition, or thoroughly Democratic party of the House, while avowing strong secasion sentiments, are nevertheless bitter sitckiers for popular rights, and will stand out for them. As yet they have been able to obtain few concessions. They have caused the Army bill, now under consideration, to be modified to such an extent that the Governor shall appoint the Genaria and field officers, by and with the advice of the Sepate. The debate in the South Carolina House of Representatives on Thesday last was bitterly acrimonious. Washington, Dec. 9.

I learn through a Republican Member of Congress, that Mr. Convin is prepared to submit a proposition to the Committee of Thirty-Three, for the adjustment of sectional differences. He proposes an amendment to Section Third of Article Second of the Constitution, by striking out that portion which authorizes Congress to make all needful rules and regulations for the Territorica, and inserting a clause transferring the whole power now exercised by Congress, under the Republican interpretation, to the settlers of Territorica interpretation, to the settlers of Territorica interpretation, pt the settlers of Territorica interpretation, pt the settlers of the Constitution interpretation of the United Sistes, and quasi forcing Biatos, which shall elect all their own of flears, pay all their own expenses, and he subject to no Federal supervision, except for defensive purposes, until adm flet as Rasieswoon unch State Constitution as their people may alset. This is very similar to Ri Thayor's doctrine. This has been submitted to a few Republican members, who, with the understanding that they do not wrive the Republican construction of the article in the Constitution, consecuted to it informably. Secessionists perivate the right. They are resolute and sternily pay that if the South will have ruin, we might be well-make a monument of it and flash. It is incoming to the North. mor that attempts will be made to prevent Lincoln's inauguration is revived. A conservative South Carolinian, who is striving here to postpone and finally prevent secession, alleges that rash and uncontrollable men are perfecting this scheme. This is probably a suspicion growing out of the alarmed condition of the public mind. The streets are fall of vague rumors fomented by timorous people. They seem to indicate the temper of the times. Rev. Mr. Stockton preached a thrilling sermon in the Hail of Representatives this morning, stardling his great audience by declaring in his ghastly way, "There is no hope for the Union out God." He alluded with graphic force to the striking correspondence of the unfinished action and its unfinished elipitot. He was very feeble, sitting in the chair while speaking. The scane was extremely dramatic.

The greater part of yesterday was occupied in this Court by the trial of a man named Keinedy for assault with intent to kill. It seems that Mrs. Wilson and her husband, residing in this city, were sitting by their fire one night some six mouths since, when Kennedy, like a roaring lion seeking whom he might devour came into their peacekin premises, selzed Mrs. Wilson "by her two shoulders" and endeavored to get her whole body into the stova. She rather objected to such proceedings. But rather, objected to such proceedings. But Kennedy—so say the Prosecution—succeeded in getting her head and shoulders in, and as a consequence she was horribly burned. Her husband, meantime, sat calmly by and offered no resistance, but, Rip Van Winkle-like, purfed his pipe and said nothing. It was not un til the man Kennedy was about to attack him that he made a demonstration—that was to-ward the door. As a matter of course, whisky was mingled with fire in this case, and after wards poison came in. On another occasion, it is claimed, Kennedy brought Mrs. Wilson a to it is claimed, Reinedy orought and whisky, but no some had she partaken of it than she cried out, "I am poisoned?" She had taken a chemical compound composed of muristic acid and sine, and commonly used for soldering purposes. But it did not kill her. A doctor was poses. But it did not kill her. A doctor was called and the acid neutralized, and the in-tended victim lives to confront her would-be

On the first count of the indictment—that of the burning—the jury rendered a verdict of "not gailty," in the afternoon. A Nolle proseque was entered, and Kennedy yet is to be tried for the attempt to poison.

The Recorder volunteered Mr. Wilson some fatherly advice and recommanded him to cultivate his organ of combativeness a little, that the next time a man came in and undertook to burn up his wife he might be able to do some

Mr. Powell said events were fast crowding upon us, which, were they not speedily suppressed, wend result in a dissolution of the government. The resolution proposed legislation to give power for the correction of cells. Our duty to the country requires us to act promptly. The eleventh amendment to the Constitution was made in 1794, and in 1868 the 18th was made. Our fathers acted in emergencies, and so can we. Mr. Colleamer moved to strike out part of the resolution, leaving in only so much as refers to Federal offices, and that he referred to a special committee. Mr. King inquired whether additional legislation was necessary to maintain the Constitution. Mr. Yulec inquired whether additional legislation was necessary to maintain the Constitution. Mr. Yulec inquired what was intended by the samendment. Mr. Green said he waid vote for the resolution and amendment bothe Constitution, or a legal ensetment. Unless popular sentiment goes with it, or the strong arm of the Government goes with it, it is not worth a straw. Wassurorox, Dec. 10.—Horsz.—Mr. Hawkins gave additional reasons why he had asked to be accused from serving on the Union Select Committee. Florida is a small State, but nevertheless is entitled to all the rights and immunities of the other States. She cannot be forced to remain in the Union, and its but never of attempted coercion. He was satisfied of unanimity prevading that State to seek rodress of its grievances in its own way and by means of other than Congressional compromises, which latter have never accomplished a successful purpose. He regarded the compoment carts of the Committee as peculiarly unfortunate.

He cart e sed the composition of the Committee, especially objecting to Mr. Davis, of Maryland, as not a fit Representative of that State, arguing that all who voted for Penrington as Speaker were disloyal to the rights of the South. He regretted that the resolution for the appointment of the Committee camfrom one of the most gifted some of the South.
He gave fair warning that Mississippi, Alabanus, Florida, Georgia, and South Carolina, were certain to secende, and to be followed by Arkansas, Louistans and Texas.

Mr. Vallandigham angued la favor of excusleg Mr. Hawkins for the reason that the committee was raised with a view to peace. We should not use coercion to make members serve. He adverted to the composition of the committee in condemnation, asying there was no Democratic committeemen from the great subject, and which does of intend to be a de-WANTED-Chicago city proper-ty in exchange for Goods to the amount of WANTED.—An Improved Farm committee in condemnation, asying there was no Democratic committeemen from the great Northwest which has such deep interest in the subject, and which does to intend to be a dependent province either of the East or South. If the people of that section could not other-wise get to the sea, they would cleave their way with the sword.

Mr. McGlernand remarked that a trouble-some future open up before us, but he did not believe our government can be dissolved by the consent of any one of its parties. There was more strength in the government than is generally believed. He was amazed that the entire Democracy of the North should be excluded from the committee, but was not willing to excuse Mr. Hawkins.

Mr. Sickles, in dispelling the prevalent delusions, maintained that the Union can be well perpetuated by justice, but not an instant by the application of force. He believed with the city of New York, that the power to deal with the pending political question rests on the Republican party, those who have control of the Legislation of the Northern States. Let their Legislatures be evened that we may see in what manner they are prepared to deal with the question.

he applied with manifest advantage to various hangers on of government.

The present Post Office site having been bought for $200,000, there is $300,000 left to build with; but the Philadelphia site cost so much that only $153,107 is left, and an approviation will be needed. Various amendments of postal laws are recommended, and the report concludes with an exulting peroration oncerning mail-bags, on which twenty-five ore cent. saving has been effected—it is to be upped not at the expense of the bags, which were not too good before.

B. R. Sullorove, Esq.—Bear Sir: I was informed this morning by a friend that a telegraphic dispatch of the 27th of November last, from Washington City to the Chicago Tribbine, stated among other things, "that the pressure upon me had been so great that I had withdrawn as a candidate for the United States Senate; and stated also some of the probable results of such withdrawal. Now, so far as this dispatch refers to me, there is, not one word of truth in it. No pressure has been brought to bear upon me to induce me to withdraw my candidacy for the Senate. On the contrary, I have been most strongly urged to be and remain a candidate for that high position by many kind and too partial dirends; I am daily receiving the most gratifying assirances of wopport for the Senate from different parts of the State. Tam a candidate for that the state of the United States, and at the proper time the Legislature of Indiana will decide between myself and all others who may be candidates for a seas in that high body, under the Constitution. The Legislature alous has a right to elect Senators, and totts decision I will most cheerfully submit—but I cannot acknowledge the right of any one at Washington to the Senate from I was a state to the City of any one at Washington to by a telegraphic dispatch—that is dispatching, me rather uncoremonlously.

Please publish this letter in your Duly Journal, as well-to provent misapprehensions in the future as to save the Washington telegrapher.
